Marcegaglia appoints new general manager at stainless unit

Wednesday, 18 January 2012

Italy's largest re-roller, Marcegaglia, has appointed Egidio Bini as the new general manager of its Marcegaglia Stainless division, Steel Business Briefing learns directly for the company.

Bini will replace Giancarlo Spotti, who has been for many years general manager of Marcegaglia Stainless Steel Division. Spotti has been appointed ceo of Marcegaglia Buildtech, the group of companies operating in the building and construction sector.

Bini will operate with his staff on domestic and international markets for stainless steel welded tubes, cold drawn bars and flat products.
